

MISSION

Corban Study Abroad equips students for culturally responsive global engagement that will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ.

GOALS FOR STUDY ABROAD

- Strengthen ongoing relationships with study abroad providers and partner universities.
- Create new opportunities for students to engage in meaningful education abroad.
- Measure outcomes from study abroad to continually refine and improve the services we offer students.
- Serve students on all levels of the study abroad continuum to foster holistic and meaningful learning before, during and after study abroad.

OUTCOMES FOR STUDY ABROAD ALUMNI

-  Become life-long learners who commit to cultural humility in an iterative process of learning, growth and adjustment.
-  Emerge from study abroad with a worldview wider than Salem, Oregon, or anglophone North America.
-  Engage responsively with their host families, communities and countries.
-  Integrate study abroad into their fields of study.
-  Know the place of their faith in the world.

GLOBAL IMPACT

160 Corban University students representing 21 academic majors and concentrations have spent a semester away or abroad since Spring 2008.

95% of these off-campus students leave the US for their semester.

In the 2016-17 academic year, 90 Corban students studied or served abroad in 17 foreign countries on five continents.
