

Ashley Soulé Conroy Foundation Scholarship

Scholarships are $4,000 and are awarded based on merit and financial need.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need, include a resume, and write a 500-800 word essay on the following topic: Please tell us about an experience that has changed or shaped your life.

To be eligible you must be enrolled in a study abroad program for at least 1 full semester in the Fall or Spring, have a minimum 3.0 GPA, have completed one year of college-level coursework or 30 credit hours, and be enrolled as an undergraduate student.

Find out more information and print the application at <http://www.ashleysfoundation.org/index.html>.

The deadline for Fall is July 1st. The deadline for Spring is December 1st.

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship

2,900 government awards nationwide of up to $5,000 are available for Pell Grant-eligible students.

To be eligible you must be a U.S. citizen, an undergraduate student in good standing, receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of study abroad, applying to or accepted into a study abroad program, and planning to study in a country not currently under a Travel Warning issued by the U.S. Department of State.

Scholarships are awarded to students who demonstrate academic achievement, whose program of choice connects to his/her future career and personal goals, whose experiences will be used to impact his/her home community, and who possess diversity of background and experiences.

Critical Language Award: Applicants who are receiving a Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship and studying a critical language during their time abroad can apply for a supplemental award of up to $3,000 that can be combined with the principle scholarship for a combined total of $8,000.

Find more information and apply online at <https://www.gilmanscholarship.org/applicants/application-overview/>.

The deadline for Summer 2018/Fall 2018 programs is March 6, 2018.

BrightTax Global Scholar Initiative

Awards begin at $1,000 and are based on merit and financial need.

To be eligible you must be a U.S. citizen, currently living in the U.S. and will be studying abroad, and have a minimum GPA of 3.9. Scholarships are only available for full semester programs and are not available for summer programs.

The application process takes into account financial need, academic achievement, community involvement, leadership skills, and achievements in extracurricular activities.

Find more information and apply online at <https://brighttax.com/scholarships.html>.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Scholarships are typically awarded in December and July, just before the beginning of Spring and Fall semesters.

Diversity Abroad Overseas Ambassador Scholarship

Five awards of $500 are available each semester. Award recipients will also receive a “Diversity Abroad Swag Bag,” the opportunity to have their articles, blogs, pictures, and videos promoted by Diversity Abroad, and complimentary registration to the 2017/18 Global Student Leadership Summit.

To be eligible you must meet one of the diversity requirements: African-American/Black, Asian/Pacific Islander, disabilities, first generation, Hispanic/Latino, low-income, multiracial, or Native American. You also must be enrolled as a full-time student or be a recent graduate (1-3 years out, participating in a semester or year-long study, intern, volunteer, or teach abroad program, and have a cumulative 2.75 GPA. Award recipients must also be leaders in their campus and community, energetic, creative, and passionate about international engagement, possess strong writing skills and social media presence, and be committed to challenging stereotypes and promoting positive social change.

Diversity Abroad Overseas Ambassadors will represent DiversityAbroad.com for the duration of the program by documenting their experiences with photos and videos on the website, writing an article every two weeks on a topic related your abroad experiences, and share tips and answer questions on the Diversity Abroad Forum.

Find more information and apply online at <https://www.diversityabroad.com/overseas-ambassadors>.

The deadline is June 1, 2018.

Fund for Education Abroad Scholarship

An estimated 70 scholarships will be awarded in the 2018-2019 cycle. Awards for semester-long programs are $5,000. Awards for year-long programs are $10,000. For summer programs, awards are prorated by length of program (with a minimum of $1,250).

To be eligible you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, currently enrolled as an undergraduate student, and participating in a study abroad program for at least 4 weeks (28 days).

Preference is given to students who demonstrate financial need and represent a group that is traditionally underrepresented in education abroad (e.g. first-generation college students, minorities, community college students).

Find out more information and apply online at <http://fundforeducationabroad.org/apply/>.

The application deadline for 2018-2019 is January 10th, 2018.

Good Colleges- Study Abroad Award

Competition winners will receive a $2,000 cash prize that can be used to pay for living expenses while studying abroad.

To be eligible you must be enrolled or seeking to enroll in an accredited college or university.

Applicants must submit a 150-250 word essay on the theme “Why That City?” Essays should follow the theme, but there are no rules about what style of entry you should submit. The winners will be chosen by a panel and announced within a month of the competition closing.

Find more information and apply online at <https://goodcolleges.online/study-abroad-award/>.

The competition deadline is November 1, 2018.

Ideapod Scholarship

The contest winner will receive a $2,000 scholarship.

To be eligible you must be a university student and include the #futureofwork in your essay response.

Applicants must respond to the question on ideapod.com: “What will Artificial Intelligence mean for work?” Ideas can be up to 1,000 characters long and can include an image or YouTube/Vimeo video.

There is no deadline listed.

International Institute of Education- Generation Study Abroad Travel Grant

IIE will award 100 grants nationwide of $2,000.

To be eligible you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, enrolled in an undergraduate degree program, and participating in a study abroad program for academic credit.

Scholarships are awarded according to financial need, academic achievement, appropriateness of the study abroad program for the student's academic & professional goals, and the long-term impact the award would have on the student and campus.

Find more information and apply online at https://www.iie.org/en/Programs/Generation-Study-Abroad/UtilityNav/Funding/Travel-Grants#online_app.

The deadline for Summer 2018/Fall 2018 programs is March 4, 2018.

Room to Travel- Study Abroad Scholarship

The competition winner will be awarded $1,000.

To be eligible you must be enrolled at an accredited U.S. university and write a 600-800 word essay on what inspires you to travel and what you stand to gain from your study abroad experience. In your essay, include your name, email address, and the university you attend.

Find more information and apply online at <http://www.alltherooms.com/w/room-to-travel-scholarship/>.

The deadline is August 1, 2018.

ScholarTrips- International Travel Scholarships

6 grand prize winners will receive $2,500. 10 second prize winners will receive $1,000. 25 third place winners will receive $500.

To be eligible you must be a legal U.S. resident and a current student over the age of 14.

Your entry must include a 60-90 second video or a 500-word essay on the topic: Who your ideal travel companion is (can be living or dead), where you would go, and why. Entries will be scored according to your passion for visiting another country, the impact studying abroad would have on your life, and your creativity.

Find out more information and apply online at <http://www.scholartrips.org/>.

The deadline is November 6th, 2017.

Tortuga Study Abroad Scholarship

The winner will be awarded a $1,000 scholarship and a Tortuga Outbreaker backpack ($299).

To be eligible you must be a U.S. citizen/permanent resident/studying in the U.S. on a student visa, be a full-time undergraduate student in good academic standing, and have applied to or been accepted into a study abroad program.

Found out more information and apply online at <https://www.tortugabackpacks.com/pages/study-abroad-scholarship>.

The deadline for Spring 2018 is December 20th, 2017. The deadline for Fall 2018 is May 20, 2018.