The Developing Cultural Intelligence workshop equips participants to improve their cultural intelligence (CQ) in light of their CQ Assessment results. Prior to the workshop participants will take a CQ assessment online. At the workshop, participants will use their results to develop an CQ action plan. After an extended cross-cultural experience or trip abroad, you'll take the CQ assessment again to view areas of growth. This $25 CQ workshop fee pays for access to the worldwide normed Cultural Intelligence assessment.
